10. Public Participation

Mr. Minkner approached the board and shared an unfounded threat that was shared with him. He asks that the school make all guardians of the students within our school district aware whenever there is a threat to our school via phone calls or social media.

11. Board Statement of Appreciation and Recognition

Randy Brimberry would like to thank the student council and administrators for planning the 17 minutes of silence today in protest of gun violence and school shootings.

Thank you to all high school administrators, teachers, staff, and students for their hard work in achieving Four Star status.

Thanks to Mrs. Allison Waitt and her business math class for their dedication and hard work in raising $958 for the Sheridan High School weight room. Also, thanks to Mr. Mike McCarthy for his work in improving and updating the weight room and for being a human target at the Dodgeball game to help raise money.

A big thank you to Dr. Miller, Dr. Newblom, Mr. Davis, Mr. Jones, Eric Gifford and everyone involved in the SMS and SHS parent and public safety meeting held on March 1. It was full of very beneficial information and was very well planned.

Thank you to all of the administrators, teachers, and staff in all of their work in preparing the students for ISTEP.

Alan Lyon wants to recognize the students and administration for “The 17 Minutes of Silence”, the respect they’ve shown for the students that passed away in the Florida shooting.

Todd Burtron shared that an Educator he is not, but observes the communication within the administration and schoolboard. Mr. Burtron applauds their leadership. He appreciates the firsthand knowledge shared with the board in keeping them current on the happenings at SCS.
