

Life Skills & Functional Academics Program

Sheridan Community Schools

Sheridan Community Schools' Special Education Department provides services for students with disabilities that are not working towards a high school general or core 40 type diploma. These are usually students that need additional help to achieve the same career goals as students working towards a diploma.